HIGH IMPACT MISSION READY WORKSHOP.

A 90-Day Plan to Bring Confidence, Clarity, and Consistency to Your Church

Pastors and church leaders carry a tremendous load. Many congregations want to move forward, but feel stuck, tired, or unsure where to begin.

The 1:1 Mission Ready Workshop gives your church the support and structure it needs to move forward with confidence.

This is a private, personalized, and gentle consulting experience designed for small and normative-size churches.

WHY THIS IS THE SOLUTION

Let's be honest. Pastors look for "silver bullets" constantly. I did. Those solutions looked like [for me] the latest evangelism fad (remember Evangelism Explosion?) or the latest/greatest offering from my denomination (Southern Baptist Convention).

I had very high-level associations. I had passion to reach my community for Christ. I wanted my church to be a high-impact, high-conversion-rate church. I was a great preacher. Truly. My churches grew but did not explode. I served small communities from 1984-1995. Even in state capitals (Baton Rouge) and major cities (New Orleans), nothing "popped" until I was called to Tucson, Arizona. It was there everything came together.

Pressure to make that "altar call" and "immediate conversion" evaporated. I could focus on "leading the church to be the church and reach people where they were".

I retired in 2007. I've been in the business world since then. I learned that what made me a success as a pastor also makes a small business successful – systems and relationships.

This workshop has the potential to transform your ministry and the church you serve.
